

FAWCETT LIBRARY
27 WILFRED STREET
LONDON, S.W.1.

24/16

1884

76.
17th

Dear Mr. Fawcett,

Your letter is most kind. I write as you know the strongest opinion
on the subject although I go so far as to be hardly a supporter of the proposed alterations. My position was difficult as I did not know what to say to our people on whom great pressure was put & who voted, and for example as Hibbert, & felt as tho' I was whoring ill to them. Sincerely yr.
Charles W. Dilke