Dear friend,

I certainly intended to call on thee, & they promised when we parted, & mean it still, but on attendance, I think you all three if agreeable, had better join my American party tomorrow evening. I give tea at six or as near that hour, as possible, & refreshments as near 9 as possible. I expect a very large party, above 30 probably - but I trust we can accommodate them all. we are to have our collection in the picture gallery Thine truly - Alfred
