Dear Professor Rée,

please excuse my delay in answering your very nice letter which reached me via Heidi Gossie. I was really rather horrified when I looked at the date & my only excuse would be that I have been inundated with post as well as trying to get another book under way, and have only now started reading through and answering at least some of my letters. As there have been now some three thousand, and many from young Germans as well as Britische I am glad I did decide to tell our story rather than allow myself to bury it in the past.

Thank you for writing
Sincerely
