My dear Cobb,

When in town I received a letter from your son at Banbury, & there was a hint that I might subscribe to a sum to be raised for rejoicing at Banbury

on the approaching marriage. The same application is made to me at this place. Ask Munton what I should do. I prefer Bamberg. If he will agree with you
as to the sum, & will advance it for me I shall be ready to comform his act

Yours ever
Henry Parnell

Excuse me to your son
for not having answered his letter.
