32 ADDISON ROAD,

KENSINGTON, W.

My dear Mrs Fawcett.
Of course I remember! I consulted a friend as to what I might do "say the last syllable of the name of the town." He said briefly I don't think I might do it will do it. These journeys are a joke to you, but I hardly do anything more violent than an expedition at most to be seen, & I am not in a very good condition to do anything think makes me nervous. need, I be quite positive now, or could I fling my self into the fray later.

I like it with a lot of myself. I have been in town all Easter, just sitting more or less quiet, trying to get fit. I like cold, but there are limits. Professor Sambourne writes for Bath that his Ther. was 49 on Easter day. My garden was a sight with snow on Easter Monday. I have been asked to help to organise a suffrage branch in Mayfair. "Stony ground," as Bramwell Booth said to me about Barnet.

Then he pleasantly added -
"Beer and the Church!"

Yrs affly
