Dearest - Amy,

Ever so many thanks for your letter to Agnes received this morning. It was nothing but a pleasure to us both to do what we could to find Jack a satisfactory abode during his stay in Aldeburgh. We told every body that you would come & make the final decision: and I feel quite sorry you are not going to see dear Gollen Sam & his wife, and so a quiet dinner new cousins. They are both great dears, and have such a lovely welcome for young people, especially I think for young men. But I always say Dar is the best - "Law" we have ever known in her largeness of heart. I hope Miss Forster's will have a satisfactory home for Jack. She is a gentle soul and our family have known two generations of her.

I expect you are writing to Dar. We will tell our girls this is what you are not coming at present. Love you both very much. M. G. Forster
