Dear Madam.

I must thank you for two letters sent me in the country about 10 days ago and beg you to excuse me for not having replied to them.
My time was very fully occupied by various kinds of work connected with the debate that was coming on in the subject of Women's suffrage. Mr Gladstone's pamphlet against us did not do us as much harm as our enemies hoped and expected.

I always feel that we have everything to gain by discussion of this subject & people naturally say "if this is all, so be it" a man as Mr Gladstone can say against women's suffrage he must have a very weak case.

I am enclosing two pamphlets which I hope will interest you.

With thanks for your interest in our movement

Yours very faithfully

Mr. S. Fawcett
