My dearest May,

Another most delightful book has arrived just from you, A. G. Bradley's Romance of Northumberland. It looks most fascinating and we do thank you for it with all our hearts. We expect to get off tomorrow but not to get to Northumberland till nearly the end of August. I expect you are having a tremendous drive of work and will be thankful when the stress is over and you can get a little rest. We had Ellen here last night and also Maude, Goppie's wife. We took them to see the Russian Dancers at the Palace, quite the most lovely dancing I have ever seen.

I will probably be suffering about in the Lake country part of September if you are still at Waukegan we may meet which would be very nice. Much love and many many thanks for the lovely books you have sent us. Agnes joins me in love & thanks. Ever your loving
M. Sawitt
