Dear Mr Bedford,

After the kind interest you expressed in my new book, Sleep, when you gave me the great pleasure of a visit, you must either forget it all, or think me most remiss for not sending it. But the printers drove us all mad, & only now do I get advance copies. Publication date is the 17 Feb. & so I just get it to you in time for the 3 weeks before you said you would like to have it. I do hope you may find it interesting & helpful. I shall look out for your article eagerly. Trusting that you are very well, yours cordially Marie C. Stopes
