Dear Jellie

Really, this is best to stop in Mr. Brackenbury says he knows courts in some cases - and the feels that very strong representation could be made if it did not feel would take the taste of it not counting than to find out that it might have counted if that only stuck to it.
 She says that has it been refused bail is so different to a case in which it was offered & refused by the prisoners. They are more responsible for you. Don't try for bail until I have seen you again. as if you applied for it & they accepted & then decided to refuse it. Don't be in a worse position

PTO

I am sure you will be glad to know that I am to get two Lons Escarcelle papers of one sort. I am very glad.

With best love darling from

Nellie

Mr. Marshall Thules we shall get the time passed in Holloway included in the sentence
L.
