August 27th.

Dear Lady Cowie,

I was under the impression that you were still in Toru on the twelfth, and therefore ventured to send the few birds you are good enough to thank me for.

My Father is seeking it in Normandy, where he seems well and flourishing.

With regard to your very kind invitation to myself,
I bear a visit I have promised to make near Carlisle will prevent my accepting, which otherwise I should have done with great pleasure.

Thanking you for your kindness, believe me, with my best regards to Sir James,
yours very truly
Wm Barrett Browning.
