There was a lady in hospital with me who went to Bow Street yesterday

She conducted her own case & I don't know the lady before the Tribunal so it

• is so difficult with three people charged at once. Each wants to do a different thing. I said I would rather not have the Tribunal there

Let Mrs Crocker who has been up three times before wanted him.

He looked so knocked up & all today. I hope you will not see see one again -

Goodbye with love to both of you from Nellie.

Will you send a p.c. home saying that I shall not write often for the reason & love you.
