Dear Mr Mills,

Your very very kind letter came this morning.

What a comfort it is to have

You caring for Harry, no words can say, because it just means that everything humanly possible is being done to save him. With an ordinary doctor it would not be the same. I know that you give him love - well as skill and if the two things together can prevail, then what we fear will happen.

At moments I can't help hoping although the letter you read out told me how very ~~dark~~ serious & dark the outlook is.

He is having a better day & that is something.

As to mother, I want things to be made as easy as possible.

 At the very best it will be very terrible & am. afraid.

Thank you again, dear Mr Mills, for your goodness to the boy & to us.

Yours sincerely
 Christabel Parkhurst

~~Mr~~

P.S. affectionate message to Mrs Mills, please!
