

5416

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

The Women's Social and Political Union.

OFFICE: LINCOLN'S INN HOUSE, KINGSWAY, W.C.

Mrs. Pankhurst, Hon. Treasurer.

Mrs. Mabel Tuke, Hon. Sec.

Auditors: Messrs. Sayers & Wesson,

Chartered Accountants, 19, Hanover Square, W.

All Communications,
unless marked "private" will be opened by the Hon. Secretary.

Telegraphic Address—WOSPOLU, LONDON.

Telephone 2724 Holborn (three lines).

Jan. 9th 1913

Dear Mrs Billingham

Mrs Annie Kenney has had to go off on urgent business & has asked me to acknowledge your letter & cheque £50. Immediately on her return tomorrow she will write you.

We all are proud & grateful to your daughter & her comrades for their splendid championship of our great cause. You should indeed be proud to be the mother of Mrs Billingham who I understand was magnificent in the dock yesterday. I am certain the Union will do everything possible to prevent forcible feeding & use all their influence to make public the exclusion of women in court.

I enclose receipt for your generous

VOTES FOR WOMEN

The Women's Social and Political Union

OFFICE: LINCOLN'S INN HOUSE - KINGSWAY, W.C.

Agents Messrs. Reeves & Watson,
General Secretaries, 10, Hanover Square, W.

Telephone No. 252 (Morning from 11 a.m.)
Telegrams: 'W.S.P.U.' - WOODS, LONDON.

Mrs. Parkhurst, Sec. Treasurer
Mrs. Stansfeld, Sec. Gen.

17, Cornhill, London, E.C. 4.
Telephone No. 4000 (Morning from 11 a.m.)
Telegrams: 'W.S.P.U.' - WOODS, LONDON.

812 . with all frankude & sympathy

believe me Yours very sincerely

Beatrice Landers

Tri. Sec.

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

916