June 6-76.

Dear Mr Blackmore

If you can find time to furnish either Mrs Fawcett or me with the cases you mentioned last evening. where the want of equality in the law of divorce is felt, it might be useful in her speech. As you would be a sound authority to her. if initial letters are given only. it will be, I should suppose, sufficient for illustration. I enclose 2 cards; each admits two guests. The speaking will commence at 3-30. -

I remain,

yours very truly
