

891

Backworth,

Bankery Rd

Oxford

May 12th 1900.

AL/3204

Ans. by Mrs Pollard -
16/5/00

891

Dear Madam,

I have to thank you for your kind telegram and letter, and for the papers, and tickets enclosed in the letter. I had concluded before they came that there was some mistake.

It will give me much pleasure to dedicate "Many Daughters" to "The Ladies on the Committee of the Women's Institute" in grateful acknowledgement of their interest in the education of working women

I should like very much to attend with my friend Miss Bell some of the conferences for which you have kindly sent tickets. I am specially interested in the two you mention. I knew one of Mrs. Bernard Rosanquet's books and liked it greatly; but as I am only just recovering from a bad cold I dare not venture from home on the 16th. I hope I may be more fortunate in being well by the 12th of June. I have some practical knowledge on the subject of the "Housing of Educated Women". For some years

my friend Miss Bell and I have acted as joint heads of a boarding-house for girl and women students belonging to the "Association for the Higher Education of Women" in Oxford. These students are, for the most part, understood to be unable to meet the expenses of the Women's College, or the Halls. I am

experience can be of any use to the "Women's Institute" we shall be very glad.

Any pamphlets which you are so good, as to send will be very welcome.

Believe me,

very faithfully yours.

Auntie Wm. Keckler

"Sarah G. Keckler"