Dear Mr Billington Grey

Thanks for your generous remuneration I don't think this lot of work has been entirely satisfactory, but I must make up to you in some other way.

I am sending you a list of the celebrations at the time of the passing of the Bill. But there are too really exciting comments. I have Let come across anything about Nino Boyle, the Election job.

Your idea of coming here is a good one & I am sure it can be arranged. We only have the one sitting-room, but can manage to leave you clear some time

To me it all seems rather dead. I remember I felt dead about it at the time. I suppose the war had dulled one's sensibilities

Yours sincerely

Stella Newson
