

m + some when you say goodby I am pretty a full great fit So please don't worry about me Miss Brackenbury says they have released the discipline to the other prisoners & they have found it do a great deal by good - their tempers are better & they cry they are smoother to work that time

I have been thinking about the problem of the West

Have pity on frailty - Sleep like a top last night - every one is so kind The discipline is very relaxed very much - The hard labour people have the same food we have and talk at them I'll do what's done their work. And no one of the different newspapers. I put them under my dress and give them to the convict's passers when we empty the shop - I can get anything through Miss Permitt but I don't put the letters in books - put some in my hand when I come
