My dear Wilfred

I thank you much for getting the Will copied for me & I also thank you
for the interest you have paid to the Bank I enclose receipts. With regard to the bills I never used to see them so I do not know whether

those I sent to you were excesses, who thought they were?

Before I received y^r letter I had written to you for £100. as I am getting low in cash.

I am thank g of writ^g a codicil to my Will in consequence of Mrs L's decease & I do not like the expense both
I should like it be needful, I have just paid Mrs L £3. 5/ for my Will. You have sent me a Postal order, am I to send it to the N P Bank when I draw the £22. 7. 5?

I feel your kindness are very much dear Wilfred for I am both in grief & very feeble health, & therefore rather unable to bear poor Mrs L's state, "it will come better" as our late dear friend & now family connection added to say, I mean W. G. W. G.

My kind love
