Dear Professor Ayrton

So many thanks for your very kind letter. I have today written to M<sup>rs</sup> Gregory enclosing your letter to her. If she will lend us a motor ~~car~~ <sup>car</sup> it will be of the very greatest service for the train service is very inadequate.

We have made an excellent beginning here & much sympathy is shown us.

I entirely agree with your suggestions as to Churches & Chapels & I hope you will call at Clements Dun & talk the matter over with ~~at~~ Mrs Petrick Lawrence & Christabel. I am sorry I had to leave without seeing you.
It will interest you to know that the minister of a Congregational Chapel here has asked me to "preach" the sermon on Sunday night - here in Haverford.

I am greatly interested in Mrs Ayrton's splendid scientific work & I am very proud of her.
I return you Miss Neville's letter. I hope she may prove a good worker.

With kindest regards
Sincerely yours
G. Parkhurst.
