

Altham 28 July 52
7 1/4 o'clock

My dearest

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London, E.W.1. 2073

I wrote a short note in Manchester, and find all well here, but much more rain in the last 3 days than at Standish.
I have just seen (in the rain) round the kitchen Garden and the growth of everything in it since only last Thursday is prodigious.
They have preserved out of it as you already know and there will be more casseroles - very fine - Hob is delighted with the invitation -

I am somewhat but not much surprised to find they have not written from Fort Denton since Lydia Ann's return in reply to Lydia's note, but perhaps as they know you are from home they are waiting your return.

I am going to Fort Denton with Holgate on Tuesday to talk over some business matters with them - Liza has had some more talk with them, but things are not much mended. Particulars when we meet - I am sorry it but the rest are

Private Library
Dr. Alfred Screen
London S.W.1
2073