My dear Wilfred

I wrote to
Mr. Watkins (Manager)
at the Bank to inquire what balance I had now to draw upon &
he replied £61.15.10.

I was greatly surprised as my private ~~the~~ account. "I have £120. 6/" I am uneasy & shall be glad if you can explain this to me, without telling Mr. Walker I have asked you as I sh^d not like to offend him. I shall be glad if you will in

-mediately pay the ^{Manchester} Bank Bank £100. as I want money before going to Glasgow & I am anxious to go this week. The bills are not all in I will send them when I get them, sh^d I fill up that form you sent me on

will you please
my dear Alfred always
yours very affly

J. A. Baker
