Caplin (See Vera Brittain)

3938

married Caplin son of an authority on the lives & habits of the North American Indians He travelled among them 1832 to 1837 (on various journeys) published some six or more works of value on them, & a self-taught artist painted a long series of their portraits now in Nat. Museum Washington

He wrote an unique book called "The Breath of Life" (1861) on the benefit of keeping one's mouth always closed.
