Dear Miss Billinghamurst,

Mrs Pankhurst was away in Cambridge yesterday, and therefore it was impossible for her to have your letter. I gave it to her this morning immediately on her arrival at the office, and as she is leaving town almost at once, she has asked me to write and thank you for it, together with the enclosures.

She desires me to say that she thinks that it would be a good thing, if the meeting to which you refer is a peaceful one, for you to make your statement public. On the other hand, if it is of a disorderly character, she feels that she would not like you to suffer any annoyance, and thinks it would be an excellent plan for you to send a letter to the Press, as she is sure they would accept one from you.

Yours sincerely,

Horner D. Keat

Secretary to Mrs Pankhurst.
