Dear Mrs Stirling

We are all just very grateful to you for having unearthed & published such a valuable piece of evidence that women voted prior to the Reform Bill of 1832. Your help & interest lead me to think that perhaps you may some day ere long find time to come here & see something of our great-organisation. I am sure that you will be pleased to see what progress is being made not only in the getting of the vote but in the work of preparing women to use it wisely when it is won.

I am very truly yours

E. Pankhurst
