

AL/27

Private

4, Carlton Gardens,
S.W.

18 March 1887

FAWCETT LIBRARY
27 WILFRED STREET
S.W.1.

Dear Mrs Fawcett

I think it very unlikely that the House will rise before Thursday in Holy week; and the fact that the Woman's Suffrage Bill is down for the Wednesday in that week is, in my judgment, a very strong additional reason for not departing from what has of late years been the usual practice. I will certainly lay the matter before the Leader of the House of Commons.

I am

Yours very Sincerely

Mr James Bulfinch

Mrs Fawcett.

Fawcett Library
By Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

~~1897~~